MYSORE ACT No. I OF 1912.

[1]THE MYSORE JUDICIAL OFFICERS' PROTECTION ACT, 1912.

(Received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the eighth day of March 1912.)

An Act for the protection of Judicial Officers.

WHEREAS it is considered expedient to provide for the greater protection of Judges, Magistrates and others acting judicially; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:— Preamble.

Non-liability to suit of officers acting judicially for official acts done in good faith and of officers executing warrants and orders.

1. No Judge, Magistrate, Deputy Commissioner or other person acting judicially shall be liable to be sued in any Civil Court for any act done or ordered to be done by him in the discharge of his judicial duty whether or not within the limits of his jurisdiction:

Provided that he, at the time, in good faith, believed himself to have jurisdiction to do or order the act complained of:

And no officer of any Court or other person, bound to execute the lawful warrants or orders of any such Judge, Magistrate, Deputy Commissioner or other person acting judicially shall be liable to be sued in any Civil Court, for the execution of any warrant or order, which he would be bound to execute, if within the jurisdiction of the person issuing the same.

2. Section 152A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, shall be repealed.
